DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments, filed 1/29/2009, have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be fully persuasive. Rejections and/or objections not reiterated from previous office actions are hereby withdrawn. The following rejections and/or objects are either reiterated or newly applied. They constitute the complete set presently being applied to the instant application.

Response to Arguments

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The rejection of claims 1-5, 7, 10-18, and 20-23 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 5651986 ('986) in view of US 6166173 ('173) is maintained.

Applicant argues that '986 does not teach a constant release of the antineoplastic agent.

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but are not found persuasive. The biocompatible polymer/antineoplastic agent composition that is obvious by combining '986 and '173 has all the structural limitations of the presently claimed biocompatible polymer/antineoplastic agent. A composition cannot be separated from its properties. Although '986 nor '173 do not explicitly teach a constant release rate, based on the substantially identical processes using identical components, the Examiner has a reasonable basis to believe that the properties claimed in the present invention are inherent in the biocompatible polymer/antineoplastic agent composition that is rendered obvious by '986 in view of '173. Because the PTO has no means to conduct analytical experiments, the burden of proof is shifted to the Applicant to prove that the properties are not inherent. “[T]he discovery of a previously unappreciated property of a prior art composition, or of a scientific explanation for the prior art's functioning, does not render the old composition patentably new to the discoverer.” Atlas Powder Co. v. Ireco Inc., 190 F.3d 1342, 1347, 51 USPQ2d 1943, 1947 (Fed. Cir. 1999). Thus the claiming of a new use, new function or unknown property which is inherently present in the prior art does not necessarily make the claim patentable. In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 1254, 195 USPQ 430, 433 (CCPA 1977).” MPEP § 2112, I.

New Grounds of Rejection

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-5, 7, 10-18, and 20-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claim 1 recites “wherein the antineoplastic agent is release from the biocompatible polymer at a constant rate.” The specification states that one embodiment of the invention, PACLIMER, provides a constant rate of release of paclitaxel (see Example 13). The specification does not contemplate a constant rate of release over a representative number of embodiments of claim 1, which is directed to any antineoplastic agent released from any biocompatible polymer having the structure disclosed in claim 1. Further, it was never contemplated that the invention would provide a constant rate of release, except for Example 13. Therefore, the specification does provide written description for constant release over the scope of claim 1.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
